

Recovery and Community Day Saturday, June 12, 2010

Hilton Portland & Executive Tower 921 SW Sixth Avenue, Portland, OR 97204

Can a gambling addiction be passed down through generations? How can you be an advocate but maintain your anonymity? Want to learn about financial therapy tools for recovering gamblers? These questions are just a few of those addressed in the 18 sessions available to members of the public, especially those interested in recovery issues.

National Council on Problem Gambling Annual Conference is the world's oldest and largest conference dedicated to problem gambling issues. This multidisciplinary conference showcases presentations on developments in the problem gambling and gambling fields.
