

By His Excellency Ned Lamont, Governor: an Official Statement

*W*HEREAS, on behalf of the State of Connecticut, I am pleased to join the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS), the Connecticut Lottery Corporation, the Connecticut Council on Problem Gambling, and Foxwoods and Mohegan Sun Casinos – in promoting the month of March as National Problem Gambling Awareness Month; and

*W*HEREAS, promoting National Problem Gambling Awareness Month provides individuals in the problem gambling community an opportunity to educate the public and policymakers about the social and financial efficacy of services available for problem gambling; and

*W*HEREAS, problem gambling is a public health issue – affecting millions of Americans of all ages, races, and ethnic backgrounds in all communities, and which has a significant societal and economic cost; and

*W*HEREAS, the treatment of problem gambling is effective in minimizing the harm both to individuals, and to society as a whole; and

*W*HEREAS, numerous individuals, professionals, and organizations have dedicated their efforts to the education of the public about problem gambling, and the availability and effectiveness of treatment options; and

*W*HEREAS, all of Connecticut's residents are invited to participate in National Problem Gambling Awareness Month; now

*T*HEREFORE, I, Ned Lamont, Governor of the State of Connecticut, do hereby officially proclaim the month of March 2023, to be in the State of Connecticut.

PROBLEM GAMBLING AWARENESS MONTH

Ned Lamont
